Diffusive Spreading in Nature, Technology and Society

Bringing together scientists from disciplines as different as archaeology, ecology, epidemics, ethnology, linguistics and sociology with biologists, chemists, physicists, mathematicians and engineers, Diffusion Fundamentals VI is scheduled to highlight the astonishingly similar patterns of spreading phenomena in Humanities, Natural Sciences and Engineering. The conference is preceded by a pre-school on Sunday, August 23rd, introducing into basics of diffusion and spreading.

Confirmed Speakers

Dirk Brockmann (Berlin)
Frank Cichos (Leipzig)
Marc-Olivier Coppens (London)
Joaquim Fort (Girona)
Albrecht Fritzscbe (Erlangen)
Russel Gray (Jena)
Detlef Gronenborn (Mainz)
Shlomo Havlin (Ramat Gan)
Anne Kandler (London)
Rainer Klages (London)
Rajamani Krishna (Amsterdam)
Klaus Kroy (Leipzig)
Michael Leitner (Munich)
Carsten Lemmen (Geesthacht)
Philipp Maass (Osnabrück)
Hernán Makse (New York)
Christoph Neinhuis (Dresden)
Charles Nicholson (New York)
William S. Price (Sydney)
Anita Roth-Nebelsick (Stuttgart)
Martin Schnittler (Greifswald)
Manfred Wendisch (Leipzig)
Søren Wichmann (Leiden)

All participants are welcome to present posters.
More Information: df6.diffusion-fundamentals.org

Scientific Committee:  J. Kärger, A. Bunde, J. Caro, C. Chmelik, G. Vogl